

Community participation

Getting out to the things you love, one to one or in a small group, and building the confidence to do more of them.

In plain English

- Getting out to the things you love: friends, work, study, hobbies or getting around.
- One to one, in a small group, or both.
- Good support builds confidence, so you can do more of it your own way.

Who it suits

A good fit for people with goals about friends, work, study or getting around.

Not sure it is the right one? Our find the right support questions can help, or ask us.

How it is usually funded

Usually funded from Core supports (Assistance with Social, Economic and Community Participation), or Capacity Building.

The NDIS usually funds the support, not the activity. Tickets, memberships, course fees and your own lunch are usually paid by you.

Your service agreement sets out what we charge for and how.

Prices are checked against the NDIS Pricing Schedule 2026-27. The NDIA decides what a plan funds, not us.

How to start

1. Tell us three things. Who you are and how to reach you, the person's first name and area, and the support they want.
 2. We reply promptly. With a clear yes, a question, or an honest no.
 3. We meet and plan. With your consent, we meet you and the people you choose.
 4. A plain-language service agreement. What support, when, and at what price. Nothing starts until you are happy with it.
